

MURI BEACHCOMBER

Rarotonga

Muri Beachcomber is a small, intimate property privately nestled on the south-eastern coast of Rarotonga. Roughly 20 minutes from the airport and 15 minutes to Avarua township.

Set away from the main-road, on a prime beachfront property, guests can enjoy the views of the lush tropical gardens, the stunning Muri lagoon and tiny motus (offshore islets).

Offering 22 spacious rooms and units spread across two and half acres of green lawns, tropical gardens, palm trees and water ponds.

The Seaview Units are the closest to the beach and offer amazing views of the lagoon motus directly from their verandas. These rooms are perfect for the romantics or couples looking for a peaceful tropical getaway. The Watergarden Villas, also adults only, are located behind the Seaview Units.

The Garden Units and Family Garden Unit 2 Bedroom are perfect for small families travelling together. These rooms enjoy natural tropical surroundings and are fully self-contained.

All rooms are equipped with the necessities to enjoy a comfortable stay including air-conditioning for those warm summery days, spacious living/dining areas, private bathrooms, well-equipped kitchens with fridge and tea & coffee making facilities.

Onsite is a guest swimming pool, perfect for cooling off, while the Muri lagoon is only a few metres away for great snorkelling, exploring by kayak or stand-up paddle boarding.

Muri Beachcomber has a lot to offer in terms of location and affordability. Directly adjacent to Muri Beachcomber is the Muri Night Market. Popular amongst the locals and tourists it offers mainly a variety of local dinner meals. Being centrally located in the Muri district, the property is conveniently located within walking distance to many restaurants and cafes, as well as grocery stores, rental companies, gift shops, a pharmacy, and hair and beauty salon.
